Phoenix Guitar Gala: Web Registration Now Available for Online Bidders

PETALUMA, CA (Feb. 8, 2009) – Artists, musicians, and legends have banded together to make the Phoenix Guitar Gala & Carnival possible. The event, the first of its kind for the Phoenix, will occur in the very building it supports – 201 Washington Ave. Petaluma, CA – begins at 8PM. It will feature 20 guitars designed by local artists and national legends, including George Lucas, Devo, Seth Green of Robot Chicken, Stan Lee (formerly of Marvel Comics), Les Claypool of Primus, John Lasseter, and more.

The event, scheduled to take place Sat. February 28, will feature a live Internet auction, a cocktail party in celebration of the event, a silent auction featuring artist memorabilia, and appearances by select artists listed above.

WEB REGISTRATION GOES LIVE

Fans and guitar enthusiasts who will be unable to attend the Gala are now able to register online to bid on the one-of-a-kind customized guitars.

Links can be found on phoenixguitargala.com's guitar index and on each individual artist page.
